TO SUGGEST WESTERY GRANITE

But Board of Trade will be Satisfied with Other Material for Post Office—Seventh Day Baptist Missionary Society Meets—Benefit Whist for St. Michael's Parish

At the annual meeting of the Westery board of trade interest was manifested in the proposed new postoffice building, or which appropriation has been made and site purchased, which takes in the present postoffice location. When it was announced that the supervising architect's office would cheerfully receive suggestions as to design of and material to be used in the structure, President Charles Perry was appointed chairman, with authority to appoint his associates of a committee to take up this matter with the supervising architect or his representative. It was suggested that as much as Westery was noted for its granite, the new building should be of granite, but it was urged that no great stress be laid on that particular feature, as the architect would probably have in keeping with the nearby Memorial building and perhaps of the same buff brick.

It was further argued that if it were decided to build the structure of brick, the new building be made to harmonize with the red brick Dixon house instead of the lighter shade brick of the Memorial building.

Reference was made to the architectural beauty of the granite Episcopal church, and that it would not be in bad taste to build the new postoffice of native granite, and then, in order to harmonize with the Episcopal church, the realization of actually needed improvement, erect another granite building on the site of the Brown house of 1890, joining the latter building, with proper effort, could be built jointly or at the expense of state and town and serve as a Town hall as well as county court house.

President William L. Clarke presided at the regular meeting of the Seventh Day Baptist Missionary society held in Westery. The session opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Burdett Coon and the minutes of the previous meeting were approved and the reports of the corresponding secretary and treasurer were accepted. Letters were read from Rev. D. H. Davis of Shanghai, and Rev. H. Eugene Davis and Dr. Palmer of London, China. It was voted that Rev. D. H. Davis be authorized to purchase land and erect and complete the Shanghai chapel.

Ebenezer Ammonke, the young African who is preparing for missionary work in Tuskegee, Alabama, has recovered from hospital treatment and resumed his studies. President Booker T. Washington states the young man is making good progress.

It was voted to appropriate $250 to the Italian mission in New York, to be expended under direction of the New York church. Rev. L. A. Platts reported commencement work in the California church at Los Angeles. The sum of $600 was appropriated for the Battle Creek field to aid in support of the pastor. The following necrology was read:

Joseph H. Potter died in the town of Westery, R. I., August 9, 1909, in his 84th year. He became identified with the board of managers of the Seventh Day Baptist Missionary society in 1890, and served continuously as one of its working force during a period of 19 years. This exceptionally long service was a singular attestation to the trust placed upon him in constant attendance at the meetings of the board, even attending the last meeting, held only ten days previous to his death, and in an unchanging interest in the board's work and plans.

A good adviser, always courteous, Brother Potter loved to meet the members of the board, and his personal friends. His was a conscientious service, and it has helped to establish the board's reputation.

The resignation of G. H. Fitz Randolph, general missionary at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was accepted, and $200 was appropriated for his traveling expenses and for labor in the southwestern field.

The annual meeting of the Board of Deacons of the Seventh Day Baptist church, held at the home of Gideon T. Collins, of Westery, R. I., for 27 years he had served as a member of the board. His interest in the work and the effect of that work on the cause of the Master was manifest in the regular attendance at the meetings held and healthy co-operation in all its plans.

Charles H. Saunders, Ira B. Crandall and Charles H. Stanton were appointed a committee to consider matters pertaining to missionary work in the Boulder, Col. field, and report at next meeting.

Dr. Burdett Coon was elected a member of the missionary board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gideon T. Collins.

It was voted that the missionary board contribute to the Tract society $250.00 of the expense of sending a representative to the Gold Coast and Cape Town in Africa.

There was a large attendance at the whist given by the ladies of the parish for the benefit of St. Michael's church, and there was a material addition to the church treasury as the result. The prize winners were: first, Annie Keeler; second, Robert Roche; first, Leo Higgins; second, there were instrumental and vocal selections rendered for the pleasure of patrons, and refreshments were served.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Busy Days for Board of Relief—Committee for Banquet of Business Men's Association.

The board of relief has had a busy time for the past two days. At the session Tuesday there were 47 applicants for relief, and all day Wednesday was occupied in hearing those who believed that the assessors had listed their property too high. The members of the board are John M. Larned, Jarvis B. Hatch and William E. Hanley.

Plans for Banquet.
Andrew Jacobson, president of the Stafford Business Men's association, has appointed John M. Larned, R. M. Ellis and Karl C. Adams a committee to arrange for the annual banquet which will probably be held the latter part of March.

Miss Margaret Mullins of the Robinson store is having a week's vacation. The whist party given by the Ladies' auxiliary, held at the home of E. T. Shea of Dayville in exchange for a gold watch. Staples said that after the banquet Monday night he was in the hallway near the Y. M. C. A. rooms on the second hall on the town hall building by a singularly clean cut young fellow, fairly well dressed and would not be taken for a criminal. He said it because he was with a satisfactory reason for being in this section, but intimates he is in love with a young woman.

Staples says that he never committed the crime of burglary before and it is not because he was with a prisoner was identified by a local business man as recently having purchased a glass cutter in the city court this morning at 10 o'clock.
